IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Mrs. Mary S. Fore, who died six years ago, November 30, 1945.

Just a line of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory fond and true;
Just a token of love and care,
That my heart still longs for you.

I do not forget, nor do I intend,
I think of you often and will to the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to my memory you ever will be.
—Mrs. W. V. Jones.

Steel Company Discovers There Is No 'Heat Sickness'

CHICAGO—An intensified medical and safety program is helping employees of U.S. Steel's Chicago area mills beat the heat as midsummer temperatures soar.

The program is based upon an important medical discovery: That there is no such thing as heat sickness and that cases known as heat exhaustion, heat cramps and heat prostration are due largely to poor physical condition, improper rest and faulty diet.

U.S. Steel's hard-hitting campaign to reduce summer heat's toll in employee health has met with marked success since the program began in 1941. Only 41 cases, most of them minor, have been reported so far this year in Chicago area plants—a reduction of 90 per cent in ten years.

Workers are urged to get plenty of sleep and to take cool baths daily. "Beat the heat" wafers and candies are made available to all employees. They contain scientific amounts of salt and dextrose for the replacement of body losses of salt and sugar. More than 40 million salt tablets have been given to U.S. Steel workers in the past seven years.

A color film showing the right way to combat heat fatigue has been used extensively in the mills. More than 100,000 copies of "beat the heat" comic books have been distributed. These books, illustrated pamphlets and posters stress proper diet, rest and recreation.

M. M. ERNE

Mr. Matthew M. Erne, 68, of this county, died at Lynchburg General Hospital Sunday. He was born in Amherst County April 12, 1883. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. C. Christophel, of Sacremento, Calif., and a brother, John L. Erne, of Lynchburg. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from Central Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. L. P. Brown. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were: Carter Martin, Paul Sarver, Walker Shupe, Nathan Powell, G. W. Wooldridge, and DeWitt Harvey.

Appomattox is a growing town.

Movement started to put more religious emphasis into Christmas observance.

Uncle Sam Says

They're hauling up a new flag beneath Old Glory in hundreds of American communities. It's a Treasury Department flag awarded to cities for special activity in selling U. S. Defense Bonds under the Payroll Savings Plan. Where 80 per cent or more of a town's business firms install the plan, the town becomes a Flag City, entitled to fly this special flag. Let's hope more and more towns get on this bandwagon. Employes who have the benefit of this plan are saving wisely and helping America to become strong!

Vera

Vera, Nov. 28.— Thanksgiving holiday enjoyed by all. We are sure enough for the turkeys.

There is a lot of hunting. They are having good luck many deer have been killed.

The Thanksgiving guests home o T. C. Harvey were Mr. Warters, Misses Mae and Avery. Lewis Harvey, Mr. and Jerry Harvey and Annie.

Charlie Harvey, from Dan spent the holidays and the end with his parents, Mr. T. C. Harvey.

Vernon Beasley s on Ph ing with his parents, Mr. Grover Beasley.

The Womanless Wedding Vera school Friday night enjoyed by all. There was a crowd present.

Jerry Harvey has gone to Benning, Georgia, After his furlough with his wife ents.

Wesley Franklin is still hospital, but he is hopes to be home next.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Richmond were the week-end of T. C. Harvey. They also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edman. Mrs. Meade Akin to Richmond with Cam to winter.

Miss Sue Moore was the guest in the home of T. J.

DOE DEER TAKES HUNTER'S GUN

Deer were thick in Prince County on opening day. "See anything like it," report McAllister of Hopewell, Va. standing beside this ten my right arm, wanting deer make their way thro woods directly in front of a sudden, something ir my gun from behind and clean to the ground. It wa big doe and I kicked at brushed on past me."

Carver High School

We trust that all had a very nice Thanksgiving holiday, and we are back in school ready for work again.

The student body is glad to know that we have three new officers in the Future Farmers of America. They are all fine boys: Norrald Watkins, re-elected president; McKinley Tanner, reelected secretary; and Raymond Williams, reporter.

The student council is working on a project of selling 'Our World" magazine. The money raised will go for necessary things in the new school.

We were glad to see some of our college students home for the holidays—Curtis Marshall, Deaster Johnson, Rudolph Tibbs, Leon Lawing, and Charles Jeffries. Charles spent a part of his vacation in North Carolina visiting relatives.

The Student Council met Monday. They have completed their constitution. They have some very strict rules, too. Beware, students!

We wish to pause here and extend our deepest sympathy to Warren and Clarabelle Minnifield in the loss of their uncle.

The Seniors will measure for their caps and gowns real soon. A-hem!

The Tobacco Rally is on. Remember students, the toba.co will be sold on the market.

Bring some good wrappers, and at least five pounds a piece. The $5.00 prize will be for who wins! December 11 is the last day for bringing it in.

Quite a few of the eleventh graders spent the Thanksgiving holiday in the city.

The ninth grade chaps, William Lipford and Winston Jones, spent Wednesday hunting. Wonder what they caught? One of the members of this class also won the cake; it was Ella J. Chambers.

The eighth grade is glad to have Dorothy Turner back after an illness.

The four girls: Annie Megginson, Hazel Gafford, Josephine Johns and Pearl Johnson of the Mud Street division of Carver High, certainly have made wonderful improvement since Tuesday, when their glasses arrived.

The Science Club met recently, mainly interested in discussing the proposed science projects for state competition. There are several students interested in the competition.

The Popularity Contest marches on. Programs have been presented, but no one knows who is supposed to be in the lead. However, we have an idea who is.

Until next week, we close with the thought: "America is a tune. It must be sung together."

EARLY GUNNING REPORTS RUN FAIR TO EXCELLENT

Early reports on hunter success run from fair to excellent, according to information being received by the Richmond office of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries. Deer hunters in each eastern counties as Prince George, Surry, New Kent, Sussex reported excellent successes. One club in Prince George —the Burrowville Hunt Club—reported 11 buck deer and 1 wild turkey killed on opening day.

R. F. Baxter, president of the club, said about 60 hunters were on hand opening day, including I. T. Quinn, Executive Director; his son, I. T., Jr., and J. J. Shomon, editor of Virginia Wildlife. Many deer were seen. Baxter killed the largest deer, a 12-point buck groing around 200 pounds.

Reports from west of the Blue Ridge run from fair to good. Shenandoah County reported 200 deer killed opening day with many stations not yet reported. Warren County checked in 34 deer on opening day. Last year's entire total in the county amounted to only 31. Frederick County reported 74 deer killed opening day and 11 wild turkeys. Rockingham County checked in 65 deer opening day with several stations not yet reported.

The Big Levels Public Hunt, one in which any deer sex was legal, had almost a 50 per cent hunter success with 120 hunters killing 57 deer, as reported by E. M. Harper, supervisor of the George Washington National Forest.

Augusta County had two hunting accidents on opening day. One man was killed when his loaded gun went off in the car, and one man was shot through the leg.

Quail hunters found quite a few birds, according to I. T. Quinn, who said numerous reports were coming in from the Piedmont Counties saying that quail hunters were having success.

DON'T GIVE TRAGED. FOR CHRISTMAS!

Richmond, Nov. 28.- "Don't give tradegy for Christmas," was the plea of Colonel C. W. Woodson, Jr., Superintendent of State Police and Executive Chairman of the governor's Highway Safety Committee, as he pointed out that December, year in and year out, is the month with the highest number of traffic fatalities.

"Last December thousands of homes were saddened by the month's 5,324 traffic crashes which injured 2,226 people and killed 106," he said, at the same time calling attention to the heavy financial burden these caused at a time when everyone's expenses are running high.

As causes of the high December toll, Colonel Woodson listed long periods of darkness which are of particular danger to pedestrians, crowds of shoppers thronging city streets and driving to and from rural areas, increased drinking and a general inattentiveness due to preoccupation. "Strangely enough," he continued, "nearly all of these so-called 'accidents' can be traced directly to a violation of the Golden Rule and they come at a time when consideration for our fellow men should be paramount in our thoughts."

"This December," he continued, "will be all the more tragic in that it will see, in the midst of all the joys of the season, the one millionth traffic death for the United States unless efforts to postpone it into January are successful."

As a final reminder,Colonel Woodson stated that Christmas and New Year's Day are comparatively safe as little traffic moves but that the pre-holiday period and the days following Christmas can always be expected to take many lives. This can be prevented, he said, by scrupulous attention to walking and driving and a little consideration for both the rights and shortcomings of other people.
